

Area of interest

OCHEM allows you to define your area of interest as a set of "tags". This specification will be used to filter most of the data shown to the user. For example, the users may only be interested in "ADMET" data.

A link to the current area of interest.

Area of your interest:
no tags selected [\[change\]](#)

The dialog that allows to specify the area of interest as a set of tags

Area of interest

This page allows you to edit your area of interest and to filter all output according to it.

Following tags reflect your area of interest. Please provide adequate combination of tags to filter all the data. You will see only data, that matches ALL of the tags specified.

Tags related to properties: [\[add tag\]](#)

ADMET [\[x\]](#) ,

Tags related to compounds: [\[add tag\]](#)

No tags for molecule selected